

Master of Psychology (Organizational)

Program Structure

Professional practice (completion of minimum of 1,000 hours of supervised organizational practice in the School's Career Research and Assessment Service and in organizational meetings and career development workshops)

Stage 1 Courses (48 UOC) UOC

Research and Evaluation Methods	6
Psychology of Organizations 1	6
Psychology of Organizations 2	6
Learning, Training and Development	6
Career Choice and Development	6
Professional and Ethical Practice (Organizational) 1	6
Professional and Ethical Practice (Organizational) 2	6
Assessment in Organizations	6

Stage 2 Courses (48 UOC) UOC

Psychological Assessment 2	6
Advanced Topics in Organizational psychology	6
Professional and Ethical Practice (Organizational) 3	6
Professional and Ethical Practice (Organizational) 4	6
Research Thesis (Organizational) 1	6
Research Thesis (Organizational) 2	6

Program Code

1034

Entry Requirements:

A n accredited 4 year Bachelor degree with first class Honours or upper Second Class First Division Honours in psychology from a University recognized by the APAC, or an equivalent overseas qualification. The degree must include a research thesis as a major component.

Program Duration:

2 years

Faculty

Science

Entry

January, May & September

Awarding Body:

- UK University
- Asian University

Please contact IIBM for further details on

